	14-12-2005 Shri D.R. Patel, counsel for the petitioner. Shri Vivek Sharma, P.L., for the State. Application for urgent hearing is allowed. Heard. It is submitted that the petitioner claims that he is entitled for compassionate appointment and he comes within the Scheme. It is further submitted that the father of the petitioner died after 1/11/2000 i.e. after the formation of the State of Chhattisgarh. It is also submitted that an application was made on 7/2/2004 for compassionate appointment but till today neither appointment has been given nor any reason has been assigned. Learned counsel submits that for the present the petitioner may be allowed to submit the detailed representation before the competent authority of the respondents, which will be considered and decided in accordance with law. The prayer is not opposed by the other side. Having considered and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, in the opinion of this Court, ends of justice will be served if a direction is given to the petitioner to make a detailed representation raising his grievances before the competent authority of the respondents along with a copy of the petition and this order within three weeks from today and on such representation being filed, the competent authority of the respondents shall decide the same on its own merits in accordance with law as early as possible positively within three months from the date of receipt of the representation specifying the ground on which the order is passed. It is made clear that if any grievance remains, the petitioner may avail the remedy available under the law. With the aforesaid observations, this petition stands disposed of. Certified copy as per rules. Copy to the State counsel, who shall be obliged to forward the same. H/- Sd/- Fakhruddin Judge
